

Factsheet C38: How to pay HMRC

We will send you a payment slip every month detailing how much tax and national insurance you will need to pay. Payment to HMRC (Inland Revenue) is due by the 19th of every month and you will receive the slip before this date.

Please be advised that there will be one occasion during the tax year when you will need to pay two lots of tax and national insurance within one month. This is because we process payroll every four weeks so there are 13 tax periods, but HMRC require payment every month for 12 tax periods.
